

LaShonne Watts was previously an Assistant City Attorney and Southeast Community Prosecutor for the City of Dallas. She was in this position since November 2011. Prior to joining the City Attorney's Office, Ms. Watts worked as a Staff Attorney for the Children's Law Center in New York City for 5 years, where she represented children in custody, visitation, guardianship, paternity and abuse & neglect cases in Bronx Family Court. Ms. Watts has also worked for the law firm of Pillsbury Winthrop as a litigation associate, at the Close Up Foundation as a Program Instructor, and as a contract attorney with various firms in New York City and Washington, D.C. Ms. Watts received her Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University and her Juris Doctor from the University of California, Berkeley.

Ms. Watts is a board member of the Dickerson Center for Civic Responsibility, the Eastfield College Pleasant Grove campus Advisory Council, and a member of the J.L. Turner Bar Association. Ms. Watts was also a Leadership ISD Fellow in 2014.